December 2017

Scotty Yee

I hope all of you had a Great Thanksgiving and are gearing up for the Christmas Season. We as a Club have done some great things this past year. We successfully held our 30th Anniversary Koi Show. There are so many People to thank for making the Show a continued “must see” event. Without our Volunteers, the Show would not be the Benchmark that a lot of other Koi Shows judge themselves against. The Club also held our annual Koi Auction; it was rough going at times to pull the Auction off due to the timing, Back to Back, Show and then the Auction, having the auction so close to the show would really tax most of our volunteers. So we decided to move the auction to a later date. The move proved to be a success, and the Club members seemed re-energized and the Auction was deemed a big win. Our Club cannot survive without our Volunteers, their helping hands and time are the backbone of our Club. I continue to ask that as a member of our Club you try to find time to volunteer for the many jobs/events that we have all year. I hope you enjoyed our Venues and Guest Speakers that we had this year. If you didn't attend one of our monthly meetings you missed out on Great Koi Ponds, Great Homes, Great People, Great Fun, and don't forget the Great Food. Thank you to all involved.

As for last month's meeting, what a cool pond Donna and Vince Hernandez have. If you missed the meeting their pond is state-of-the-Art, with the coolest Filter pits around. Their Koi collection is just as good as their Pond. I know Vince has been hard at work trying to improve his Koi knowledge and Koi selecting skills. By the way the herd looks great, seems like Donna and Vince are well underway to be competing in our Koi Show 2018. Keep up the good work!! Hard Work, yup! That's what it took our monthly speaker Steve Buckles aka Buck to create and put on the final touches on Vince and Donna's pond. Buck was instrumental in completing the pond build. Buck also gave a great presentation on pond building. One take away from Buck that stuck in my head is “There are many ways to build a pond.” Great advice. We also had our Photo Contest, thank you to those who participated and voted. The winning photo is eligible to become the cover of our 2018 Koi Show program. As for the winner of the contest, it was no other than our hosts of the meeting Vince and Donna Hernandez. Hmm, Something's Fishy??? Congrats and I hope the photo makes the cover.

Ok, Ok, now for even more fun and excitement. We have once again been invited to Vista for our Christmas/Holiday meeting!! If you have never been, then you have been missing out on “one of,” if not the best meeting of the year. Why? Just show up and you will know why. Bonnie McIlvaine has “one of” the best Koi Ponds in the County, not to mention “one of” the most beautiful backyards around. Words cannot describe the entire property. Well maybe I can describe it in two words “One Of”.....

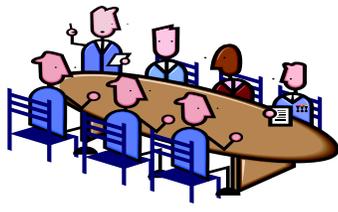

Don't forget we also do our Secret Santa exchange, please bring a gift around $25 if you would like to participate. I hope everyone is still reading this, because I saved the best for last. Bonnie is treating the membership to a Catered Mexican “feast,” yup, no Potluck. It was announced at our last meeting that Bonnie wanted to payback the Club because of the Club's support and effort when her pond was in distress. Both Jack Chapman and Linda Pluth “saved the day,” Bonnie's koi could have easily died, but thanks to Jack and Linda, the Koi were saved, and now we as Club members get to enjoy the rewards of their efforts. Way to go and thank you.

Remember, we have a Club Facebook page, Koi Club of San Diego. We are always posting new photos and articles.

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays

November 2017

Fun Filled Koiing

MONTHLY MEETINGS: The November 12th meeting will be held at Vince & Donna Hernandez house. A chance to see their new Koi Pond. Buck Buckles will speak about building the Hernandez pond. The December Christmas Party with Gift Exchange will be December 10th at Bonnie McIlvaine's in Vista. Just bring a chair and your gift, if you are participating. This meeting will be catered so you do not need to bring a potluck dish as in the past. Koi Jack will be Koi Santa for the occasion.

AUCTION: 2017: Tamsie thought we should have voted on the third category of sales splits: 50%-50% on all amounts. Discussion followed. We did not need to vote on the sales categories and will keep all three: 100% to the club, 50% to the club and 50% to the seller, 50% to the club up to $300 with anything over $300 going 100% to the seller. Tamsie wants an earlier date for the auction due to weather and also our host did not sell as much in November. General discussion followed. Discussed having the auction not so close to the show date; alternate years since Inland Koi has a pond tour and auction every other year; bringing auction koi to General Meetings; not having a General Meeting the month of the auction. No final decisions made at this time.

MEMBERSHIP: Greg Ruth reported as of October 31st - 114 Active, 3 New Members, 2 Renewals, 18 Suspended Members (over 61 days-there are 7 Overdue Renewals within the 18.)

MEETING HOSTING OPPORTUNITIES: If you would like to host a meeting please contact Linda Pluth at: venue@koicsd.org. Linda needs venues starting April 2018.

SPEAKING OPPORTUNITIES: Suggestions for speakers or topics please contact Jack Chapman at program@koicsd.org. There is a lot to learn about koi keeping and we need to hear what you would like to learn about and/or who you would like to speak/present or can provide the expertise that you need to make your koi experience better! Contact Jack and let him know what you want!! Jack has speakers scheduled thru February 2018 with the show in March and the Grow Out contest in June. Jack is looking for speakers for April 2018 going forward.

TREASURER: Dr. Bob Adler was absent. A copy of the November report was provided. The club is doing well. Any questions, contact the Treasurer.

JFG REPORT BY OUR GARDEN LIAISON Linda Pluth: Linda reported that the Monday morning cleaning crew is working on the bio-filter chamber each time to unclog those drains. Greg said he could bring his snake to help punch through the clog. Right now feeding three times a day and will go to two times a day when the water temperature hits 67.

KOI SHOW 2018 PLANNING DR. BOB ADLER: Bob absent. The next show meeting is December 13th from 6pm to 8pm at Dr. Bob Adler's business. The following meetings will be at Dr. Bob's: 1/17, and 2/21. A new intern show chairman has to be appointed to follow in Bob's footsteps and be ready to take over the reins of the 2019 show. Pam Spindola will be our Head Judge. Gerald has confirmed almost all of the judges.

Show up and become involved. It's more fun to be an active participant.

WEBMASTER: Gerald was absent. Per Greg and Scotty – Gerald would like updated photos of officers and feedback regarding the website and the show.

PUBLICITY: Mike did an excellent job on publicity for the koi auction.

AKCA: Scotty will email the Minutes to the Steering Committee. Tamsie suggested that we need to provide microscopes for the 2018 Wet Lab for any non-students. Discussion followed.

KHA: Jack reported nothing new at this time of year. Jack shared with us a koi sketch he won at one of our club's General Meeting drawings which he had custom framed. The frame set off the artwork perfectly.

JUNE 2018 ELECTION: Scotty suggested that Tamsie be in charge of the Nominating Committee for our June election since she is good at recruiting. Scotty's term will be up so we will need a new President along with any other officers who do not wish to continue serving.

KHA KORNER

by

“KOI” Jack Chapman

KHA Korner – Flashing

Well, this fall has seen a few calls about flashing and I’ve done several pond visits based on just flashing activity with only one case of parasites, which is a good result. So I wanted to take this opportunity to discuss flashing in general. We have all seen koi flash in our ponds and they are trying to tell us something. Your koi are not happy about something or, as I like to say, irritated by something and trust me when I say the list is loooooong. Our minds instantly go to the dreaded parasitic infestation and it is one thing to be ruled out, but more times than not it is something else most often related to water quality or daily changes to the same. But first, a little time for parasites – there are other fish behaviors in addition to flashing that are common indicators of questionable parasites like the quick repeated twitching of a peck fin(s) and/or while swimming normal to hold the peck fin very close to the body; sitting on the bottom isolated with fins in the out position; repeated flashing at all times of the day to one particular area of their body; and even some quick, repeated darting swimming motions. Even resting head down (45 degrees) or up in the water column for a few minutes is a sign all is not right with your koi. Let’s not forget jumping or breaching the surface followed by a stream of bubbles coming from the gills and often the same side of the koi. All are suspect activities that raise the question of does my koi have a parasite.

Just a note: I’ve been known to say if you look long enough you can find a parasite or two in any pond and I truly believe it - they just don’t present themselves in sufficient numbers to cause serious infestation issues in an otherwise well maintained pond and then again I could be dead wrong. But what about the flashing not associated with parasites. This list is long but let it suffice to say the major stressor in this category include: A daily change in pH at or above .5; a daily change in water temp in excess of 4 degrees F; any day you do water changes and or pond maintenance (the effect can be for a couple of days); toxins/pollutants introduced in small quantities to the pond (stuff like measurable ammonia and chlorine); and okay any change to water chemistry that the koi are irritated by (that ought to cover my butt on this subject). Oh, I almost forgot, over or multiple long or short periods of pond/koi medication. A lot of times when I get first calls about flashing and not specific behavior to parasites, we will go over the above list and just observe for a couple weeks to record koi activity. Hope this gets you to thinking of the many possibilities the next time you see a koi flash and wonder why?

The Editor would like everyone to know that the KCSA does not endorse flashing of any kind!

HOW TO BECOME IMMORTAL!!

Simple. Sponsor a KCS D trophy (or trophies) and have your name or company name engraved on it. That will last more than a lifetime and be around long after you're gone. Sponsoring trophies also helps your club's treasury to gain back what it has spent to put on our koi show so please think about being a sponsor. Being a sponsor also shows your support for your club and the hobby. There are many trophies still available but you need to first check with Linda Pluth to make sure your choice is among them. You can contact her at trophysponsor@koicsd.org or 619-200-4146, or talk to her at one of our club meetings.
